THE INDIANS' $55,000 MANAGER

Tris Speaker is 31. He was born in Hubbard City, Texas. This is his fourth season with the Indians. Owner Dunn bought him from the Red Sox. Two players and cash, the purchase price totaled $55,000. For eight years he had starred with the Red Sox. Previously he played with Cleburne and Houston in the Texas League and was farmed to Little Rock a part of the season. He's been batting over .300 since he became a regular big leaguer. He's one of the best outfielders the big leagues have ever seen.

KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE CLEVELAND INDIANS WITH SPEAKER ON THE JOB

(By Fred Turbyville.)

Tris Speaker, new Manager, is putting the jazz in the Cleveland Indians. Keep your eye on that team.

The Cleveland fans' one big wish has come true. Ever since Owner Jim Dunn came through with cash and players, totalling $55,000 for the wonderful outfield star, 90 per cent of Cleveland fandom has hoped and prayed that Speaker would be made manager of the club. He now holds that job and Cleveland is happy. He was made manager following Lee Fohl's resignation.

One hundred per cent pep—on the field and at bat—the Indians are off to a new start. The team is good. Its outfield ranks with the best. Its infield is very strong. Its catching staff is the envy of seven other clubs. And its pitching crew is fair.

With the responsibilities of the managership on his shoulders Speaker is hammering the ball and bids fair to climb back into the 300 class where he has been these many years. Rival clubs in the American League—the White Sox, the Yankees and Tigers—now fear the Indians. Speaker's promotion to manager means more to them than would have meant the acquisition of another strong pitcher, which the club has been after all season.

Rival club managers know that Tris Speaker is one of the brainiest men in baseball today. He has been Lee Fohl's right-hand man ever since he jumped out of a Red Sox uniform into the spangles of the Redskins. He is 31 years old, knows the American League as well as anyone, is popular with his men, and is himself a star of the first water, fully able at all times to set the pace for his players.

Owner Jim Dunn of the Indians—Sunny Jim they call him—has spent lots of money to land a pennant in the Forest City. He has had wonderful support from the fans, but the fans began to kick this year. In several close games at League Park the injection of certain pinch hitters or pinch pitchers brought defeat to the Indians. Of course, there were many times when Fohl's snap judgement brought victory, but fans forget those, so easily.

Lately the team suffered through the injuries of Chapman and Graney. Both veteran stars are back now and in fine shape.

Lee Fohl, a wonderful developer of young pitchers, will be free to keep the Indian battery men going at top speed. That will be his job for the remainder of the season and at the same salary he drew as manager. Jim Dunn is no piker.

The team has had two bad slumps. Two is enough for any team and fans and players believe there will be no more.

There is fight in the team. Speaker, himself, is full of it. He's not a rowdy by any means despite the recent row with Chick Gandil in Chicago. Yet he can scrap, when scrapping is necessary to win games and it most always is after the halfway mark has been passed in an American League season.

If the Indians can show their heels to the other contenders this season it will be the first pennant for the Ohio metropolis. And Cleveland fans are mighty hopeful.

CUSHNOCS PLAY BALL AND HOLD BOXING CONTEST ON SATURDAY

Members of the Cushnoc Athletic club, soldiers, sailors and marines, are to have a big day at Fort Barrancas, Saturday, when the speedy McGowan-Lyons Ball club and the Cushnocs will play at three o'clock in the afternoon.

It will be recalled by all loyal fans that a week ago the Mobile outfit battled the Cushnocs 18 innings to a 3 to 3 tie, called on account of darkness. The game was unqualifiedly the prettiest of the season and a hot contest is expected tomorrow afternoon when the teams get together again.

Immediately after the ball game, which starts promptly at three o'clock, the long heralded boxing match between McDonald of the shipyard and Ried of the navy will be pulled off. The bout is to be conducted under navy rules and should be a clean, hard battle. Both boxers are said to be in excellent condition.

The Cushnoc Athletic club has invited the public to join its ranks and membership tickets are now to be had at the following places: Wilson-Biggs, D'Alemberte's, Hatton-Reilly Cigar Store, Sportsman's Supply Store, San Carlos cigar stand and the Heinberg company.

The events are being held early in order that members may return to town in time to attend to any business they may have, before the stores close.

No Faults But Many Virtues

Sweet Dreams Is an Exceptionally Good Mosquito Remedy.

Some mosquito remedies stain, but Sweet Dreams doesn't.

Some possess objectionable odors, but Sweet Dreams doesn't.

Some are weak and non-lasting, but Sweet Dreams is double strength and lasts all night long.

Sweet Dreams is claimed to be the greatest mixture that was ever put into a bottle and sold for the purpose of keeping mosquitoes off. Its million users say that this claim is so.

Where mosquitoes are troublesome, try Sweet Dreams. Sold by Balkcom Drug Co., and all druggists everywhere.—Adv.

SUSPECT IN PLOT WITH DYNAMITERS LEAPS TO DEATH

Los Angeles, August 7.—Charles P. McGwire assistant engineer of the municipal department of public works, who committed suicide here late last night by leaping from the office of District Attorney Thomas L. Woolwine on the eleventh floor of the Hall of Records, was held responsible today by public officials for the dynamiting last Sunday of the home of Oscar Lawler, a prominent attorney. McGwire had been told that he was to be indicted for the offense. His death came as a dramatic climax to a lengthy questioning by District Attorney Woolwine. Confronted with evidence that officials said pointed directly to him as being responsible for the dynamiting, which nearly cost the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Lawler. McGwire rushed to a window in the room, eluded officers who tried to restrain him and hurled himself to the pavement, eleven floors below. He was dead when picked up.

MAYS TO PLAY WITH YANKEES UNTIL TUESDAY

New York, August 7.—Carl Mays, the pitcher, became a temporary member of the playing staff of the New York American League baseball club today by virtue of an injunction granted by supreme court justice, L. Luce, restraining President Ban Johnson, of the league, from interfering with the player participating in championship games. The order is operative until next Tuesday when the case will be argued on its merits. Mays was obtained by the New York Yankees from the Boston club.
